

There were many entries that were very beautiful and well written, and it was difficult to choose a winner from among them all

Mr Kazem Al Saher and the adjudicators felt the words 'Teddies' Tea Party' reflected the innocence of children

---

The winning entry is:-

Teddies' Tea Party

The teddies wanted a tea party
They gathered beneath the apple tree
The apple tree, the apple tree
Was the place for the teddies' tea party

They opened their baskets
Spread the carpets
Put down the cups and the cutlery
The apple tree, the apple tree
Was the place for the teddies' tea party

The Sr. comes with the cookies
The juniors bring the tea and jellies
First they laugh, then they hug
Then they sing and dance and jump...
But at 5 o'clock they all sit down
To have a cup of tea
Beneath the apple tree

The teddies tea party
Beneath the apple tree

by Shaké Karajian

from
Vienna

